

Live Your Best Life with Parkinson's Disease

Free lecture

Monday, April 20, 2026

4 pm Opening reception and registration

4:30 – 6:30 pm Clinical staff presentations

The Meadow Club
1147 NY-112
Port Jefferson Station, NY 11777

Town Hall Meeting

- Medical and surgical management of Parkinson's disease.
- Ask the specialist.
- New treatment strategies.
- Nutrition & rehabilitation.
- Research & new clinical trials.
- Understanding non-motor issues such as sleep disorders, cognition, mood and more.
- Comprehensive Parkinson's disease care.
- Parkinson's disease resources.

Light buffet dinner will be served.

Limited seats available.
One guest allowed per registrant.

To reserve your seat, call
(631) 474-6797

Clinical experts will answer your questions.

Keynote speaker: David Kreitzman, MD
Movement Disorders Specialist and Medical Director
St. Charles Parkinson's Disease
Specialty Care Center

Marilyn Cleary, MA, OTR/L, c-LSVT, PWR, CAPS
Jennifer Oliveri, DPT, CLT-LANA, c-LSVT
Outpatient Therapy

Alyssa Morando, RD
Registered Dietician

Bailey Zampella, DO
Neurosurgeon
Catholic Health Physician Partners
St. Charles Director
Deep Brain Stimulation Program

Theresa McKenna, PhD, RN, CDCES
St. Charles Director, Psychology

For more information about the
St. Charles Parkinson's disease program, please scan the QR code.

chsli.org/st-charles-hospital